Petitioning the Court

The issuance of a no bail warrant for the offender's arrest.

I, Jacinta Hernandez, a Probation Officer Assistant, employed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, solemnly affirm and declare, under penalty of perjury,

RE: Zapata rez, Hector
CR 09-01092-1 JW

Two

There is probable cause to believe that the offender violated special condition number one that defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement and, if deported, not reenter the United States without the express consent of the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security. Upon reentry into the United States during the prior of court ordered supervision, the defendant shall report to the nearest U.S. Probation Office within 72 hours.

On or about March 11, 2013, the offender re-entered the United States without having the consent of the Department of Homeland Security and failed to report to the probation office.

As described in Charge One, the offender illegally re-entered the United States on or about March 11, 2013, and was encountered in Calexico, CA. There is no record the offender requested/received permission to reenter the United States from the United States Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security.

On or about March 12, 2013, a preliminary hearing was held in the Southern District of California and Mr. Hector Zapata-Perez was detained.

Evidence of this violation may be found in the court records, Southern District of California Docket Number 2:13MJ8184.

Based on the foregoing, there is probable cause to believe that Hector Zapata-Perez violated the conditions of his probation. Therefore, I ask the Court to issue a no bail warrant for his arrest.

Respectfully submitted,

Approved as to form:

Jacinta Hernandez
U.S. Probation Officer Assistant
